Dear Mr. Dulles:

Overseas Writers will have as its luncheon guest on November 23 Austrian Chancellor Raab.

We would like very much to have you attend this luncheon and hear the remarks of the Chancellor.

The International Business Machine Co. is giving a try-out of its simultaneous translation system which will allow the guests to hear the address in English while the Chancellor is talking in German.

The luncheon will be served in the Presidential Room of the Hotel Statler at 12:30 o'clock.

Very truly yours,

Frederic W. Collins
